Vail Awarded MAI Designation

ROANOKE – Chris Vail, Partner at Vail Appraisal, LLC, has been awarded the Appraisal Institute's prestigious MAI membership designation, which is held by professionals who provide a wide range of services on all types of real property related to providing opinions of value, evaluations, review, consulting and advice on investment decisions, among other things.

By receiving the MAI designation, Vail has joined an elite group of appraisers who have met rigorous professional requirements relating to education, testing, experience and demonstration of knowledge, understanding and ability.

To become an MAI Designated Member of the Appraisal Institute; an individual must have good moral character, be a Certified General Real Property Appraiser, hold a bachelor's degree or higher, meet standards and ethics requirements, pass rigorous education requirements, pass a final comprehensive examination, receive credit for specialized experience that meets strict criteria and receive credit for the demonstration of knowledge requirement. MAI Designated Members agree to adhere to the Appraisal Institute Code of Professional Ethics and Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, underscoring a commitment to sound and ethical professional practice.

MAI Appraisers are experienced in appraising properties of all kinds and form a business network encompassing markets nationwide and around the world.

Vail Appraisal currently offers residential and commercial valuation and consultation services across the state of Virginia. Visit our website to learn more about our company vailappraisal.com.
